Assistance Animal Agreement

Guest Name(s): _____ Site: _____

Does the person seeking to use the animal have a disability? Yes No

Is the assistance animal required for a disability-related need? Yes No

(NOTE: Additional documentation may be required if the disability is not readily apparent or known)

- 1) Violation of any rule contained in this Assistance Animal Agreement will be considered grounds for terminating the Assistance Animal Agreement and may require the removal of the animal from the park. Failure to remove the animal from the park under this provision will be considered a breach of the Site Service Agreement/ Park Rules and Regulations and may be grounds for terminating the Site Service Agreement.
- 2) For an animal to be considered an assistance animal, you may be required to provide additional information.
- 3) Any assistance animal in the park must be considered a 'domesticated' animal and must be of the type that would normally stay inside a home.
- 4) When outside the home, all animals must be in the control of the homeowner and must be kept on a leash no longer than 6', at all times. Animals may NOT be tied up, caged, or fenced outside the home without supervision at any time. The guest is responsible for removing and properly disposing of all animal waste immediately.
- 5) No "Beware of Dog" or similar signs are allowed.
- 6) Falcon's Landing RV Park reserves the right to refuse any animal entry into the park.
- 7) Any animal that is found running loose in the park may be picked up and turned over to animal control personnel. Should an animal be found running free a second time, the animal will NOT be allowed to return to the park.
- 8) Animal owners will be liable for any and all damages and/or injury caused by their animal. Falcon's Landing RV Park will not be responsible for the occurrence of harm, injury or death to an animal caused by owner, agent, employees, other guests, visitors or invitees. Should an animal have two complaints filed with respect to noise, interference of another guest's enjoyment of the park or aggressive behavior, the Assistance Animal Agreement will be terminated and the owner will remove the animal from the park immediately.
